Mathieu Paquet

Mathieu Paquet • Mâconnais

Mathieu's veins are Mâconnais. He's from Saint-Véran and grew-up at his family's estate, Domaine des Valanges. Mathieu is not a farmer, but he understands the principles of a healthy cellar and respectful winemaking. Realizing his strength as well as his void, Mathieu made it his mission to support the unsung growers who live, breathe, and farm exceptional terroir. He began this mission in 2011.

A charismatic and jolly character, Mathieu's ability to befriend growers is genuine. Each year, we work with Mathieu to bottle wines of a clear-cut place and poise. All the wines are made at his family's estate, never acidified nor wrecked by the passage of heavy filtration or new oak. The Mâconnais has been a constant place of intrigue for Burgundy wine drinkers who seek quality wines at more affordable prices, yet the region has proved it is more than a category of default or second choice. Instead of saying, "Wow, that is a great glass of Mâcon Chardonnay!" we're finally saying, "Wow, that is a great glass of White Burgundy." Fasten your seat belt and get in your time machine... it's back-to-the-future with Mathieu and the Mâconnais.
